please type or print legibly.... Thank you NCLEX Review courses are held several times throughout the year.

Arrangements for additional courses could be accommodated for groups greater than 25. Professor Laurie Brown will travel out of area for additional classes, providing scheduling can be accomplished. "The Best Way" Take the course twice. Once before or during your Medical-Surgical advance study courses. Then take the course again just before you take the NCLEX Exam. The Best Way costs are $250 for the first session and then $125 for the additional session. (Remember, if you register with a group of 5 or more students you can pay $225 per attendee for your first session).
